1. ADVICS Quality Engineers (Q/E) have final authority on component status. In the case of non-conforming material, they will follow the steps in the order defined above depending on part availability - Reject, Sort, Re-work, Concession. A diligent effort will be made to contact the supplier prior to the start of any sorting activity.
2. Only ADVICS personnel are authorized to sort/re-work finished assemblies and all charges will be debited per the ADVICS sort/re-work rates identified above.
3. The $500.00 disposition charge is the maximum per lot. Example: If sort and re-work both used, the supplier will only be charged the $500.00 disposition fee one time.
4. The supplier is responsible for any tooling damage which is caused by defective product and will be debited for the replacement tooling and labor ($35.00/Hour).
5. Any other extraordinary charges which may occur as a result of parts not meeting print will be negotiated by purchasing and the supplier for final agreement.
6. D/E = Design Engineer
7. Q/E = Quality Engineer
